SPONSORSHIP BROCHURE

For the first time in its history, SupercomputingAsia (SCA 2024) is leaving Singapore and coming to Australia.

Co-organised by leading supercomputing centres of the region including those in Australia, Japan, Singapore and Thailand, New Zealand and anchored by the National Computational Infrastructure in Australia, SCA2024 aims to promote a vibrant and shared high-performance computing and Artificial Intelligence ecosystem, for both the public and private sectors, in Asia.

SCA has quickly grown to become a key meeting and networking platform for HPC and supercomputing value chain for Asia and internationally. Partners share new insights, discuss trends and present the latest advances in the development of supercomputing. The conference attracts international delegates including executives, principal researchers and HPC professionals from academia, industry and the public sector.

WHY SHOULD YOU SPONSOR?

SupercomputingAsia has designed the sponsorship packages to maximise visibility and impact, ensuring your investment is worthwhile. Sponsorship delivers many benefits for your business or organisation.

- Brand visibility
- Develop and strengthen your brand (raise company profile)
- Reach a wider and targeted demographic
- Lead generation
- Benefit from pre-event and post event exposure
- Build business relationships and networking opportunity with industry professionals
- Identify talents to join your workforce

SCA 2024 offers sponsors the opportunity to promote your company to a large national and international audience.
